

World's Largest ETF Providers by Assets Under Management at Yearend 2020

Firm	AUM	Ownership
iShares	$2,013 billion	Owned by BlackRock.
Vanguard	$1,497 billion	Independent. Owned by Vanguard funds.
State Street SPDR	$841 billion	Owned by State Street Corp.
Invesco	$297 billion	Independent. Publicly traded.
Charles Schwab	$198 billion	Independent. Publicly traded.
First Trust	$110 billion	Independent. Privately held.
VanEck	$53 billion	Independent. Privately held.
ProShares	$47 billion	Independent. Privately held.
JP Morgan	$45 billion	Owned by JP Morgan Chase.
WisdomTree	$38 billion	Independent. Publicly traded.
ARK Investment Management	$34 billion	Independent. Privately held.
Pimco	$26 billion	Owned by Allianz.
Fidelity	$24 billion	Independent. Privately held.
Goldman Sachs	$21 billion	Owned by Goldman Sachs.
DWS	$20 billion	Owned by DWS.
Global X	$19 billion	Owned by Mirae Asset Global Investments Group.
Direxion	$18 billion	Independent. Privately held.
FlexShares	$14 billion	Owned by Northern Trust.

Notes: AUM totals as of Jan. 2, 2021. ETF providers with at least $10 billion in AUM are included in this chart, 18 in total.

Sources: ETF Database, CL-Media Relations LLC, SEC filings, company websites.

